

Mid-Level Corporate Associate Attorney

About the Job

Position: Mid-Level Corporate Associate Attorney (Emerging Companies / Venture Capital)

Office: San Francisco

Experience: 3-6 years

Job Description

We are looking for a mid-level corporate associate (emerging companies / venture capital) to join our growing corporate practice. A successful candidate will possess a strong academic record from a top law school; 3-6 years of experience in a dynamic transactional practice (preferably at a top Silicon Valley or San Francisco law firm with a recognized, leading emerging companies practice); an interest in working across the consumer and technology industries; and exceptional communication and interpersonal skills. Success in this position requires a positive, energetic attitude and dedicated work ethic.

We are looking for someone who has significant experience in the following areas:

- Equity and debt financings (it is a prerequisite to have closed dozens of equity financings)
- M&A
- General corporate counsel
- Corporate structuring and governance

Who We Are

BraunHagey & Borden LLP is a nationally recognized boutique law firm based in San Francisco and New York. Our corporate practice centers on representing a broad range of innovative, emerging companies disrupting the food, beverage, consumer packaged goods (CPG) and technology sectors. We guide our clients throughout their life cycles, advising on general corporate and commercial matters, equity and debt financings and mergers and acquisitions. Our clients range from the earliest, pre-revenue emerging companies to multi-billion-dollar industry leaders, and the investors who back them. It's a vibrant, dynamic space and we're excited to be growing our practice.

We are not a traditional firm, and we do not provide the typical law firm experience. We cultivate trusted, long-term partnership with our clients, and provide pragmatic, business-minded advice. We staff matters leanly; our associates get real hands-on work. BHB curates a small close-knit environment, and we take great care in selecting associates who excel at a wide range of task in a fast-paced environment. We are energetic, and we love being lawyers and trusted advisors.

Interested applicants should provide (1) a customized cover letter explaining their interest in the Firm and position, (2) a complete law school transcript, and (3) resume. Please send all materials to careers@braunhagey.com.

BraunHagey & Borden LLP is committed to ensuring that our office is a diverse, anti-racist, and multicultural environment where differences are valued and respected. The Firm is an equal opportunity employer and actively recruits candidates with diverse economic, racial, religious, ethnic, and sexual orientation backgrounds.
